About midday E. H. Thomas, corportion coinsel for the District, appeared it the City Hall and filed a bill with the District propress court, asking intercention by that tribunal to prevent the nerger of public utilities in the District. notably the Washington Rallway and Electric Company with the Washington Clustice Company, the big holding corporation whose purpose it is to merge the street railreads. lighting plants of part of the District and a portion of lear-by Virginia into one mammoth concern to be owned and operated under set management.

Stockholders Vote Merger.

Stockholders Vate Merger.

Al 2 o'clock yesterday the stockholders of the smaller companies interested met in Alexandria and Mount Vernon, respectively, and voted the amalgamation of the properties and the merger of the interests involved. In other words, the merger is effected, except that it awaits the sanction of the Virginia State corporation beand to become legalic effective in Virginia, and the Supreme Court of the District is petitioned by the municipal suthorities not to allow the plan to realize so far as the District of Columbia is concerned. The whole subject therefore, maves up to the court and the State corporations board of Virginia for final decision as to its legality and the right of the holding company to take over the property of the corporations involved.

The bill field with the court by Mr.

and the right of the holding com-y to take over the property of the covations involved.

The bill filled with the court by Mr. man sets forth that the article of the covation is prompted by the public rest and to prevent damage to the rest and to prevent damage to the properties of the smaller corporations of the conse are the Wash-ning its 2,000 of colonidates company, office-tors, all the subsidiary cor-ces, of which it was originally formed, there with the Washington-Virgina the control of the control of the con-trol of the con-trol
